

- the Episcopal Church at the Theological Seminary, Fairfax County, Virginia.
- (3) Sarah Bell Page, born 28th July, 1856.
 - (4) Thomas Carter Page, born 8th Dec'r, 1858.
 - (5) Mary Wallace Page, born 17th Nov., 1860.
 - (6) Lilla Leigh Page, born 7th May, 1868.
6. Anne Catharine Page, born at Ca Ira, Cumberland County, Virginia, 13th January, 1825; married, 1850, Dr. Charles A. Williams, of Chillicothe, Missouri. She died 1878, aged 53, and left four children, viz:
- (1) Jane Clark Williams, born 14th Aug., 1852; married 1st January, 1874, Henry M. Hatton, of Chillicothe, Missouri, and had two children, of whom Hubert McPhail, born 18th Sept'r, 1877, was the second, and alone survived.
 - (2) Lucy Washington Williams, born 22d Dec'r, 1855.
 - (3) Henry Page Williams, died young.
 - (4) Charles Williams, born 3d Feb., 1866.
7. Martha Bell Page, youngest of Henry Page, and Jane B. Deane, his wife, was born at Ca Ira, Cumberland County, Virginia, 17th Feb., 1827. Unmarried.

DR. MANN PAGE, of Turkey Hill (also called Keswick), Albemarle County, Virginia, sixth child and third surviving son of Major Carter Page, of The Fork, Cumberland County, Virginia, and Mary Cary, his first wife, was born at the last-named place, 26th Oct., 1791, and died at the first-named place, 15th May, 1850, aged 58 years and 7 months.

He was educated at Hampden Sidney College, Virginia, and afterwards graduated in Medicine at Philadelphia, in 1813.

The following is an exact copy of his Medical Diploma, now in the possession of his youngest son, Dr. K. Channing M. Page, of New York City:

"OMNIBUS AD QUOS PRÆSENTES LITERÆ PERVENERINT SALUTEM: CUM GRADUS UNIVERSITATIS INSTITUI fuerint, ut Viri de Literarum Republica bene meriti, seu nostræ Almæ Matris Gremio educati, seu bonarum artium Disciplinis aliunde eruditi, a Literatorum Vulgo secernerentur. SCIATIS QUOD NOS PRÆFECTUS, VICE PRÆFECTUS, ET PROFESSORES UNIVERSITATIS PENNSYLVANIENSIS GRADU DOCTORIS in Arte Medica libenter concessio TESTAMUR quanti fecimus Virum Probum MANN PAGE in Artis Medicæ Scientia plenius instructum, cujus Mores benevoli cum om-