

whence there is strong evidence that it was stolen by a lawyer. It is supposed that he sold it to interested parties in England, with a view to destroying an evidence of claim to the property, as well as preventing the discovery of the original will.

VI. WILLIAM NELSON PAGE, of Ca Ira, Cumberland County, Virginia, third son and second surviving child (and eldest having surviving male issue) of Major Carter Page, of The Fork, same county, Virginia, and Lucy Nelson, his second wife, was born at The Fork, 28th Feb'y, 1803. He married, in 1827, Fannie P., daughter of Isham Randolph, of Richmond, Virginia, and had the following children:

1. Dr. Isham Randolph Page, eldest, born about 1834; removed to Baltimore, Maryland. He married, first, in 1863, Virginia Barton, of Lexington, Rockbridge County, Virginia. She died, leaving one child, viz: Virginia Barton Page, born 1864. He married, secondly, Oct. 30th, 1866, Charlotte Stevens, of Baltimore, Maryland, and had two children, viz:
 - (1) Frances McHenry Page, born about 1867.
 - (2) Robert Stevens Page, born about 1869.
2. Anne Randolph Page, called "Nannie," died, 8 years old.
3. Philip Nelson Page, born about 1838, died young.
4. William Nelson Page, Jr., died 21st July, 1861, aged 20.
5. Rev. Coupland Randolph Page, of the Episcopal Church, born about 1842; married, 1876, Ellen Baker, of Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia, and had several children.
6. Lucia Harrison Page, born about 1844; died young.
7. Fannie Randolph Page, born about 1846; married, 1873, Rev. W. C. Meredith, of the Episcopal Church. He resided at Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia, and died about 1875, leaving her a widow with one child, viz: Fannie Randolph Meredith. Fannie R. Page was the third and last wife of Rev. W. C. Meredith, his second wife having been Bettie Cushing, of The Fork.

VI. THOMAS PAGE, of Locust Grove, Cumberland County, Virginia, sixth child and fifth son and survivor of Major Carter Page, of The Fork, same county, Virginia, and Lucy Nelson, his second wife, was born at the last-named place, 8th June, 1807, and died at the first-named place, 4th July, 1874, aged 67.

He married, 5th Nov., 1839, Sally, daughter of John W. Page