

Yorktown, Virginia), and Abby Bird, his wife. Their children were as follows:

1. Anne Willing Page, born about 1814; married, in 1835, Thomas Carter, of Annefield, Clarke County, Virginia, who formerly lived in King William County, Virginia. She was his second wife. Children:
 - (1) Dr. Charles Shirley Carter, of Baltimore, Maryland; married Miss Swann, of that city.
 - (2) Captain William Page Carter, of Clarke County, Virginia; married Lucy, daughter of Dr. Robert Powell Page, of the same county, and Susan G. Randolph, his second wife.

They are half brothers of Col. Thomas H. Carter, of Pampatike, Manquin P. O., King William County, Virginia.
2. Dr. William Byrd Page, eldest son, born about 1817; removed to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He married, about 1840, Celestine, daughter of Samuel Davis, of Louisiana. No issue known at present.
3. John Page, born about 1820; resided in Clarke County, Virginia. He married, about 1845, Lucy Mann Burwell, of Carter Hall, same county, the sister of Mrs. Henry Harrison. No issue known at present.

William Byrd Page, of Pagebrook, Clarke County, Virginia, married, secondly, about 1822, Eliza Mayo, daughter of Robert Atkinson, of Mannsfield, near Petersburg, Dinwiddie County, Virginia, and had children as follows, viz:

1. Evelyn Page, born about 1823; married, about 1841, Richard Henry Lee, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
2. Mary Page, born about 1825; married, about 1842, William, son of Major Thomas M. Nelson, of Mecklenburg County, Virginia, who was a grandson of Secretary Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia. (See Secretary Nelson.)

VI. DR. ROBERT POWELL PAGE, of Saratoga, Clarke County, Virginia, fourth child and second son of John Page, of Pagebrook, Clarke County, Virginia, and Maria H. Byrd, his wife, was born at the last-named place, 11th January, 1794, and died at the first-named place in March, 1849, aged 55 years. He was buried at Pagebrook.

It is probable that the portrait in the house of Mrs. Abby Byrd Page Hopkins, at Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia, is his