

9. William Nelson, born about 1807; married, about 1832, Mary, daughter of Col. William Macon, of Mt. Prospect, New Kent County, Virginia. No issue. William Nelson at one time worked on the farm of Dr. Mann Page, at Turkey Hill, Albemarle County, Virginia.
10. Francis Nelson, known as "one arm Frank," born about 1809; married, about 1840, Letitia Prosser, of Bremo, Charles City County, Virginia. He died, leaving a widow and six children.
Francis Nelson at one time worked on the Belvoir farm, Albemarle County, Virginia. He afterwards worked at Shirley, on James River, Virginia. At the latter place he lost his arm in some machinery.
11. Philip Nelson, born at Mt. Air, Hanover County, Virginia, about 1811; resided there. He married, in 1845, Jane Crease, widow of Rev. George W. Nelson, of the Episcopal Church, and was her second husband. Children:
 - (1) Francis Nelson.
 - (2) Caroline, died in 1876, aged 18.
 - (3) William Nelson.
12. Hugh Nelson, born at Mt. Air, Hanover County, Virginia, about 1813; removed to Clarke County, Virginia. He married, 1836, Adelaide Holker, of Boston, Mass. He died at the former residence of K. S. Nelson, Albemarle County, Virginia, about 1863, and was buried at Belvoir, same county. Two children, viz:
 - (1) Hugh Nelson.
 - (2) Nannie Nelson; died single.
13. Fannie Nelson, born about 1815; single.
14. Elizabeth (called "Betsey") Nelson, born about 1817; married, 1835, Dr. James McCoughtry, and had issue.

IV. HON. HUGH NELSON, of Belvoir, Albemarle County, Virginia, fifth son and child of Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, York County, Virginia, and Lucy Grymes, his wife, was born at Yorktown, Virginia, September 30th, 1768, and died at Belvoir, 13th March, 1836, aged 68.

He was at one time Speaker of the House of Delegates, of Virginia. He was afterwards Judge of the Federal Court, and was sometimes called Judge Nelson; Presidential Elector in 1809; Representative in the United States Congress, from Virginia, 1811-23; and immediately thereafter he was appointed Minister to Spain by President James Monroe, during the latter part of his administration.