

- (1) Mary Bland, married, about 1738, Henry Lee, of Lee's Hall, on Potomac River, and was the grandmother of Gen'l Lee (Light Horse Harry).
- (2) Richard Bland, eldest son, of Jordan's Point, on James River, Virginia. He was a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses; of the First American Congress at Philadelphia, and of the Virginia Convention of 1775. He married Annè Poythress.
7. Mary Randolph, born at Turkey Island, about 1699; married, about 1720, William Stith. Among their children was Rev. William Stith, President of William and Mary College, and Historian of Virginia. He married, Feb'y, 1744, Judith Randolph, of Tuckahoe.
8. Edward Randolph married Miss Groves, of Bristol, England, and had issue. Of these, Edward married Lucy Harrison, and Elizabeth and Mary married Yates, of Gloucester County, Virginia.
9. Henry Randolph, died unmarried, in England.

II. WILLIAM RANDOLPH, known as COUNCILOR RANDOLPH, of Turkey Island, Henrico County, Virginia, eldest son and child of William Randolph, of Yorkshire, England, and Turkey Island, Henrico County, Virginia, progenitor of the Randolph Family in Virginia, and Mary Isham, his wife, was born at the first-named place, about 1681, and resided there.

He married, about 1705, Elizabeth, daughter of Peter Beverly, of Gloucester County, Virginia, and Eliza Peyton, his wife, who was a daughter of Robert Peyton, descended from a family of that name in Norfolk, England. William Randolph, and Elizabeth Beverly, his wife, had the following children:

1. Beverly Randolph, eldest, born about 1706; removed to Turkey Island, Henrico County, Virginia, and married, about 1731, Miss Lightfoot. He died without issue.
2. PETER RANDOLPH, born at Turkey Island, Henrico County, Virginia, about 1708; removed to Chatsworth, same county. He married, about 1733, Lucy, daughter of Robert Bolling, and had WILLIAM, Beverly, Robert and Anne.
3. William Randolph, born about 1710; removed to Wilton, Henrico County (?), Virginia. He married, about 1735, Anne, daughter of Benjamin Harrison, of Berkeley (Harrison's Landing), on James River, Virginia, and Anne Carter, his wife. Their children were: