

31st January, 1786. She married, at Monticello, Albemarle County, Virginia, 28th Aug., 1805, WILSON JEFFERSON CARY, of Carysbrooke, Fluvanna County, Virginia. He was the great nephew of United States President Thomas Jefferson. Their children were:

- (1) COL. WILSON MILES CARY, born at Carysbrooke, Fluvanna County, Virginia, 1806; removed to Baltimore County, Maryland, and represented that county for six years in the Maryland State Senate. He married, in 1832, Jane Margaret, daughter of Peter Carr and Hetty Smith, his wife. The latter was niece of Gen'l Samuel Smith, of Baltimore, Maryland. Their children were as follows: (a) Sarah Nicholas, married J. Howard McHenry, of Baltimore; (b) Virginia, died infant; (c) Hetty, married, first, Maj.-Gen. John Pegram, and secondly, Prof. Henry Newell, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; (d) Virginia Randolph, died young; (e) WILSON MILES, Attorney of Baltimore, Maryland, representative of the Cary Family of Virginia, born 1838; (f) John Brune, married Fannie E., daughter of William S. Daniel, of Jefferson County, West Virginia; (g) Jenny; (h) Sidney Carr, of the firm of Cary & Co., Merchants, Baltimore, Maryland.
- (2) Archibald Cary, born at Carysbrooke, Fluvanna County, Virginia; removed to Cumberland County, Maryland. He married Monimia, daughter of Thomas, ninth Lord Fairfax, and died, leaving three children: (a) Falkland, a brilliant youth, died young; (b) Constance, married Burton N. Harrison, of Mississippi, removed to New York City; (c) Clarence, married, 1878, Elizabeth, daughter of Howard Potter, of the banking firm of Brown Bros., New York City.
- (3) Jane Blair Cary, married Rev. E. D. Smith, of New York City.
- (4) Mary Randolph Cary, married Dr. Orlando Fairfax.
- (5) Martha Jefferson Cary, married her first cousin, Gouverneur Morris, of Morrisania, New York.

V. THOMAS MANN RANDOLPH, JUNR., of Edge Hill, Albemarle County, Virginia, GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA, was the fourth child and eldest surviving son of Thomas Mann Randolph, of Tuckahoe, Goochland County, Virginia, and Anne Cary, his wife, and was born at Tuckahoe about 1767.

He was Governor of Virginia 1819-1821, and was a Presidential Elector in 1825.