

- (3) Susan Grymes, married Nathaniel Burwell, of The Grove.
- (4) Mary Grymes, married, about 1777, Robert Nelson, of Malvern Hill, Charles City County, Virginia, younger brother of Gov. Thomas Nelson, and was his first wife. There were perhaps others.

III. JOHN RANDOLPH, of Williamsburg, James City County, Virginia, eldest son and child of Sir John Randolph, of the same place, and Susanna Beverly, his wife, fourth son and child of William Randolph, of Yorkshire, England, and Turkey Island, Henrico County, Virginia, progenitor of the Randolph Family in Virginia, and Mary Isham, his wife, was born at the first-named place about 1719.

He married, about 1744, Ariana, daughter of Edmund Jennings, of Annapolis, Maryland, and their children were as follows:

1. Edmund Randolph, born at Williamsburg, James City County, Virginia, about 1745; did not follow his father to England when the war of the American Revolution broke out, but remained, and was adopted by his uncle, Peyton Randolph, who was President of the First American Congress.

Edmund Randolph was the FIRST ATTORNEY-GENERAL of the United States of America, and was also Governor of the State of Virginia. He married, in 1796, Elizabeth, daughter of R. C. Nicholas, and had:

- (1) Peyton Randolph, married Maria Ward.
- (2) Daughter Randolph, married P. V. Daniel.
- (3) Daughter Randolph, married Preston.
- (4) Daughter Randolph, married Bennet Taylor, of Albemarle County, Virginia.

2. Arianna Randolph, born at Williamsburg, James City County, Virginia, about 1750; went with her father to England when the war broke out. She married Ralph Wormeley. Their son was an Admiral in the British Navy. He had three daughters, viz: (a) Mrs. Latimer, of Baltimore, Maryland; (b) Catherine Preble Wormeley, resides at Newport, R. I.; (c) Arianna, married Daniel S. Curtis, of Boston, Massachusetts.

II. RICHARD RANDOLPH, of Curl's Neck, on James River, Henrico County, Virginia, fifth son and child of William Randolph, of Yorkshire, England, and Turkey Island, Henrico County, Vir-