

Court apprved & confirmed to be recorded according to their agreement in the Court records : —

“ Itt is ordered, that the country highway from Weimoth to Dorchester shall lie thro psent wonted highway from Weimouth to Braintree meeting fower rods wide — and whereas at the said meeting house the said way house, cannot conveniently be had at one end thereof, that therefore the said way to runne there two rods at one end and two rods at the other end thereof, and then to fall fower rods againe, at a marked stump a little beyond the said meeting house, and so that breadth to a stump of a tree nere Henry Neales home house, and thence to be carryed the said breadth to the lott called Hudsons lott, rectifying the way which now is by taking it of through seuerall nookes, as it is markt, and throug the said Hudsons lott the same breadth to the hill, going doune towards the brooke, and thence till tenn Poles beyond the brooke, six rods wyde, and then to Lye fower rods wyde vnto Dorchester bounds, as it is markt by severall markes for that purpose. May 8, 1649.

Mr. Kingman died in Weymouth, Mass., July 5, 1667.

Will of Henry Kingman.

THE last will and testament of Henry Kingman, of Waymoth aged 74 yeares or thairabout being sound of boddy but of perfect Memmory doo committ my soule and boddy to god and appointe my body to be dessently buryed and all my debts honestly payed, and all the rest of my worldly goods I dispoce of as folow :

I doo give to my sonn Edward Kingman my dwelling house with all my housing pertaining thair-unto, and my orchards with all the appurtinantes therto belonging, and I doo give him as much land a Joyneing thairto as will make it 20 acres, further, I doo give him two third partes of myne own comon lott, further, I doo give to my sonn Edward that peece of Meddo that was John Allens, and more meddo, I doo give him an acre neerest to my house of that which was Mr. Jenners. further I doo give to my son Edward my fether bed that I Ly on, and all the furniture therto belonging.

I doo give to my sonn Thomas Kingman halfe the rest of the land that I have adjoining to my house except it be too acres which I shall hereafter express, further I doo give to my sonn Thomas the other too acres of meddo, which I have which was Mr. Jenners. further I doo give to my Sonn Thomas 25 acres of upland that Lyeth neare and about Samuell Whites house, further, I doo give to my Son Thomas Third parte of my own comon lot, further, I doo give to my sonn Thomas that fether bed which he lyeth on and all that doth belong thereunto.

I doo give to my son John Kingman, the two acres of land that I above reserved and it shall be neare his house from his barne to his planting lot as convenient as it may bee. further, I doo give to my sonn John, the other halfe of my land at home. further, I doo give to my son John the two acres of meddo that I have which was William Richards and lyeth neare the tyed mill, and my son John shall have one acre of upland that lyeth along by the meddo to make meddo of it hee will. further, I doo give to my son John half the comon lot, that did belong to my ould Brother Holbrooke,