

of Worthington, Mass. His brother Elijah lived at Whitesboro', New York, and left three or four children.

My sister and myself think that he had a brother Jonas, who settled at Norwich, Vermont. And she has met a Mrs. Hutchinson of that vicinity whom she supposed to be one of his descendants.

Should this line come within the range of your inquiries, I should be very glad to learn something more of my ancestors; and could readily fill up the above outline as to our own immediate family.

I greatly honor the spirit which prompts to investigations like the one you are engaged in, and hope you may be led to satisfactory results.

Very respectfully and truly yours,

Nancy A. Boardman