2 Edw. I. Robert de Sutton [son of Wm. de Sutton].—Inq. p. m. He is his next heir. Richard is son of Robt., and is 8 years of age at the Feast of St. Michael, 2d year of Edw. I.

Margery, who was wife of John de Lexington, dotata est, held it in dower. Richard, son of Robert de Sutton, is his heir, and 9 years old.

Dos Johanna who was wife of said Robt. de Sutton adhuc restat assignanda.—[Vide Rot. Fin., I. m. 24; et. 3 Edw. I., m. 20.]

In "A Visitation of Nottinghamshire," by the Harleian Society, in 1869, is a pedigree of Robt. Sutton, who married a dau. of Lexington, she being a coheir of John de Lexington of Tuxford, in which pedigree the said Robt. Sutton marries Lucia, dau. and heir of Sir Rowland Bartram, Kt. 19 Edw. I.—Arms—Or, a lion ramp. Vert. for Bartrau; and they had Richard Sutton of Warsop, who lived 33 Edw. I.

Under this pedigree are notes about the Bartram estates and arms. There is a quotation from an inscription in Little Markham Church, where is engraved the seal of Robt. de Markham, 17 Edw. I., Or, a lion rampant, vert, and also an account of a deed from Richard Sutton of Warsop, whose arms are depicted: a round seal with a shield on which is a lion rampant for Richard de Sutton.

Under this it is written or engraved that Roland Bartram gave his daughter Lucia, wife of Robt. de Sutton, all his lands, &c., in the County of Lincoln and Nottingham, and the seal of this Bartram is there said to have been Or, a lion rampant with the legend Sigillum Rolandi de Bartram.—19 King Edw. 1.

It must be a mistake in regard to the wife of Robt. de Sutton. The rest may be true or partially so. The authorities given by Thoroton are better than this inscription. The best Heralds and Historians have not followed this authority.
