

54. JOHN⁶ DUDLEY (James,⁵ James,⁴ Stephen,³ Samuel,² Thomas¹), died at Andover, N. H., in 1810, leaving a small family. His wife was Abigail Dudley, daughter of Samuel Paul Dudley. She also died at A. in 1836. Their children :

i. DEBORAH,⁷ m. Jonathan Scribner and lived in Rome, Me., in 1847. ii. HUBBARD, b. at Brentwood, 1782, m. Lydia Tyrrell of Andover, N. H., and lived at A., in 1849, having children, viz. : 1, Sarah,⁸ T.; 2, Betsey; 3, Joseph; all of A.; 4, Enoch, of Danbury, and 5, Lydia, of Wilmot, N. H. iii. JOHN, b. 1789, m. Betsey Tyrrell, of Andover, having children; 1, John,⁸ b. at R. I.; 2, Timothy K., b. at A. 1814, d. there in 1846; 3, James B., 4, Benjamin, 5, a son; 6, a dau.; all of Andover, 1849. iv. ABIGAIL, b. 1795, m. Amos Flanders of Danbury, N. H.

55. DANIEL⁵ DUDLEY (Samuel,⁵ James,⁴ Stephen,³ Samuel,² Thomas¹), born about 1744, at Raymond, N. H. His wife was a Miss Dinsmore. He was a man of excellent natural abilities, but little education, a lively and diverting conversationalist and fond of society. He died in 1811. Children :

102. i. REV. DANIEL,⁷ b. 1770; was living in Ohio in 1848. 103. ii. THOMAS, b. Apr. 18, 1783, was living at Pittsfield, Me., in 1848, and wrote me about his family. He was an ordained Free-Baptist Preacher of good abilities and character, heir to his father's homestead. He married Anna Reant of Farmington, Me., Jan. 3, 1809, who was born Jan. 6, 1787. Rev. Thomas removed from Maine to Ohio, in 1853, and died in Pagotown, O., 1860, aged 77. 104. iii. MOSES, b. 1786, was living in Ohio in 1848, m. Jane Patten. 105. iv. SAMUEL, b. 1788, living in Ohio in 1848, m. Ann at Vanesville, O., and d. at Commonwealth, O. 106. v. DAVID, b. 1790, was a clergyman. He had one son and four daughters. They settled in the West, I believe in Michigan. He m. Betsey, widow of Boynton and dau. of Wheeler. vi. MARY, b. Mar. 6, 1777, lived at Fayette, Me., 1848, wife of Mr. Judkins, who died before 1848. vii. SUSANNA, b. Sept. 3, 1781, or 2, was of Fayette, unm. viii. MERETABEL, b. Mar. 29, 1793, m. Mr. Jacobs, and died at Fayette, Me., in 1833.

56. SAMUEL⁵ DUDLEY (Samuel,⁵ James,⁴ Stephen,³ Samuel,² Thomas¹), was the eldest son of his father, being born 1747, in New Hampshire. He married Miss Sarah Young, daughter of Aaron, of Pittston, Me. He carried on the lumbering business like his father, and was a very prominent, useful man. His home was at what is now East Pittston. It was then called "Eastern River" Plantation and "Dudley's Mills." The history of Pittston says Samuel Dudley was Selectman of Pittston in the years 1788, 93, 94, 5, 6, 7, and 8.

In 1785 he was taxed there for house and barn, five pounds; for mills, thirty pounds; eight acres of land improved, one hundred and thirty-two acres unimproved, one horse, two oxen, one cow. Stock in trade, six pounds. Real estate, forty-five pounds. Personal estate, eighteen pounds. Total, sixty-three pounds.

In 1796, a jam of mill-logs lodged on the dam. It was when the water was high and a very dangerous place to go upon; but Mr. Dudley never feared anything, and he went to start the logs and was there drowned, being carried with them over the falls. He was a generous, energetic, and good man.

Samuel Dudley, Jr., is mentioned on the records of Deeds at