

succeed in your efforts to collect a detailed history of the Dudley family."

Children:

i. GEORGE T.,⁸ has 1 son and 3 daus. His wife was Miss Mary Carpenter, of Andover, N. H. He was living at Hanover, N. H., 1870. ii. JOHN L., of Hanover, 1879; m. Amy Phinney, of Norwich, Vt., and they had 2 children. iii. DAVID AUSTIN, was of Middlesex, Vt., in 1851, and had 2 children, viz.: 1, Wm. N.,⁹ and 2, Jenette D. His wife was Mary Jones, of Lebanon, N. H. iv. A DAU.; died young. v. MARY, died young.

93. JONATHAN⁷ DUDLEY (Jacob,⁶ Samuel Paul,⁵ Stephen,⁴ Stephen,³ Samuel,² *Thomas*¹), was born Feb. 15, 1800, at Andover, N. H.; m. 1st, Delight Snow, about 1829; 2nd, Minerva Armstrong, of Norwich, Vt., about 1831, and d. 1872.

He had by the second wife eight children:

i. ALLEN SAMUEL,⁸ m. Maria Ewing, of Fond du Lac. ii. BYRON JACOB, living at Manchester, N. H., 1849; m. Amelia Statens, of Granada, Miss. iii. WM. HARRY, died at 4 years of age. iv. JASON, died at 7 years of age. v. JASON H., had 1 son and 1 dau. His wife was Lute Bradford, of Randolph, Vt. He grad. at Dartmouth Coll., and was a lawyer at Colebrook, in 1879. vi. ALBERT, of Hanover; m. Mary Gove, of Hanover. vii. MINERVA DELIGHT, had 1 child; who m. Dr. Darwin Lombard, of Colebrook, N. H. viii. SARAH, m. Charles Coleby, merchant at Colebrook, N. H., had a son Fred,⁹ who went West, married, and had children.

94. ABNER TRUE⁷ DUDLEY (Jacob,⁶ Samuel - P.,⁵ Stephen,⁴ Stephen,³ Samuel,² *Thomas*¹), was born Dec. 12, 1803, at Andover; m. 1st, Mary P. Hoyt, dau. of Joseph. She d. Dec., 1848, at Hanover; 2nd, Mrs. Phebe C. Bozzell, of Strafford, Vt., and d. 1867, at Hanover. He had 2 sons and 2 daughters, viz:

i. DON F.,⁸ b. 1827, d. at Hanover, Sept. 21, 1862, s. p. The children were all but the last by the first wife. ii. HORACE FISHER, b. 1832, a clergyman, some time of Warsaw, N. Y., and d. there. He m. Josephine Lamson of Charlestown, Mass., Sept., 1862, and they had 2 children in 1870: 1, James W.,⁹ and 2, Albertus True.

"THE REV. H. F. DUDLEY.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE, 1884.]

WARSAW, N. Y., May 4.—The Rev. Horace F. Dudley, a prominent Congregational minister, died this afternoon. His death was the result of a malignant sarcomatous tumor removed a few months ago. He was born in Hanover, N. H., on Jan. 30, 1832, and was graduated at Dartmouth College in 1850. He studied in the Union Theological Seminary, New York, and at Auburn. His first pastorate was with the Presbyterian churches of Trenton and Deerfield, Onelida County. He afterward supplied the Congregational Church at Paris and at Morrisville, in Madison County, coming to Warsaw in the winter of 1872. He took an active interest in the cause of temperance and schools. He leaves a widow and two sons. Both the young men are at Harvard."

Rev. Mr. Dudley took much interest in the genealogy of his family. By his efforts it has been made quite full. His birthplace, Hanover, the college town, was a good place to be born in. iii. BETSEY ANN, b. Jan. 7, 1836; m. Solon Wright, about 1850, and d. at Lebanon, N. H., in 1872, s. p. iv. GEORGIETTE M. b. at Hanover, Nov., 1852, dau. of second wife; m. Solon Wright, in 1872, at Lebanon, where she was living in 1889.