GENEALOGY OF THE KENTUCKY DUDLEYS.

1. ROBERT¹ DUDLEY,* whose ancestors were of Fredericksburg, Va., or near there, was born in Spottsylvania County, Va.; married there and died there, leaving five sons and probably other children:

i. LIEUT. ROBERT², the eldest son, served in the Revolutionary war as a lieutenant, and was severely wounded at the battle of Brandywine, from which wounds he soon afterwards died. ³ ii. CAPT. AMBROSE,² born in Amherst County, near Rockbridge, Va. He emigrated from

* There was a Capt. Robert Dudley living in Middlesex County, Va., Aug. 22, 1697, mentioned by Edward Green, late of Bristol, England, grocer, in his will made while he was staying at Capt. Dudley's above mentioned. This will was proved by Edward Green's brother Robert, executor, who was a haberdasher of hats at Bristol, Eng. The witnesses to the will were "Robert Dudley, Senior, Robert Dudley and William Reynolds." (See Waters's Gen. Gleanings in England, p. 3, vol. I. Part First, 1885.) This would indicate that Robert Dudley, called "Capt." and "Senior," was from Bristol, Eng., and an old acquaintance of Edward Green, the testator. There was a family of Dudleys at Bristol, England, in those days.
