

3RD B. JOHN DE SUTTON<sup>3</sup> was of full age at the death of his father, November, 1359. He sold parts of Malpas Barony in 1367. He was a knight and in the French war in 1369, and died soon after, as his widow Joan had married Henry ap Griffith in 1370. His first wife was named Katherine, as stated in a document of 1361. Joan, his last wife, was daughter and heiress of John de Clinton of Coleshill, co. Warwick, sometime wife of Sir John de Mountfort. After Sutton's death she is, by Dugdale, said to have married Sir Henry Griffith of Wichnor, co. Stafford.

4TH B. JOHN DE SUTTON,<sup>4</sup> the only child of John,<sup>3</sup> as far as shown, was under age when his father died. His wardship and marritagium were granted to Richard Fits Alan, Earl of Arundel, who sold them in 1382 for 350 marks to Philip le Dispenser, Lord of Carlington. He is said to have married 1st, Alice, dau. of Philip le Dispenser, and secondly, Joan.

He was born about 1361, at Coleshill in Arden, an estate inherited by his mother Joan, in the county of Warwick. He died March 10, 1396.

5TH B. JOHN DE SUTTON<sup>5</sup> was born in or about 1380. He was 17 in 1397, and 21 in 1401 when the inquisition of his great grandmother Isabella was held. He had livery of his lands and Dudley Castle in the last named year, but died in Sept., 1406, in his 26th year.

He held the manors of Sedgley, Kinswinford and Rowley-Somery in Staffordshire and also Himley and Over Penn in the same county as members of Dudley Castle. He also held lands in Tipton and the manor of Prestwood in the forest of Kinver.

He married Constance, daughter of Sir Walter Blount of Barton, co. Derby, who was slain at Shrewsbury Battle in 1402.

He was a knight. His widow Constance (Blount) died in 1432, at which time her son John, heir of Sir John de Sutton, was 37 and more. Besides this son John there were two other sons, viz., Thomas Sutton alias Dudley, and Humphrey Dudley who married Eleanor, daughter and coheiress of Sir Robert Roos, fourth son of Thomas Lord Roos of Hamlake.

6TH B. JOHN DE SUTTON alias DUDLEY,<sup>6</sup> K.G., was born in 1401, and married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Berkeley, of Beverstone, co. Gloucester, knight (son of Thomas Lord Berkeley by his second wife Catherine, daughter of Sir John Cliveldon), and widow of Edward Charlton Lord Powys.
