Henry Dudley, son of Lord Quondam, was in France sometime during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and so poor that he got put into prison for debt. The Queen wrote to her minister at Paris, directing him to give Henry Dudley one hundred crowns and send him into Scotland to obtain information about the movements of her rivals there. He was ever offering his services for such business. Elizabeth's minister wrote her that he had secretly met Henry Dudley in some open field in the vicinity of Paris and had
