

RODMAN.

ELIZABETH⁶ WOODBRIDGE (Ephraim⁴, Rev. John³, Mercy² Dudley, Gov. Thomas¹), born May 13, 1752; married Daniel Rodman. They had:

- i. ELIZABETH W⁶, m. Andrew Backus of New York City.
- ii. THOMAS W., m. Ann Robinson, and had one dau. Lucy Ann, who lived with her uncle Wm. W. Rodman in 1848.
- iii. DANIEL, a lawyer, m. Eliza Jenkins of Hudson, and left two daughters; 1, Adelaide⁷, who m. Mr. Newkirk of Oswego, N. Y.; 2, Laura, who m. Wm. Pardee, of Oswego.
- iv. LUCY WOODBRIDGE, m. Rev. Philip F. Mayer of Philadelphia, who wrote me this account in 1848.
- v. JULIA, m. Rev. John R. Goodman of Phila., and had three daus. living in 1848, viz.; 1, Catherine⁷; 2, Charlotte; 3, Julia.
- vi. WILLIAM W., m. Lucy Woodbridge, dau. of Joseph his

* Written by Martha A. Rockwell, wife of Dr. John A. Rockwell, chez Monsieur E. Ruffieux, 14 Place de St. Francois, Lausanne, Switzerland.

The doctor is there with his wife and all the family except John A. Rockwell, Jr., who enters the Inst. of Technology this autumn, 1892.

⁷Their American home is at Norwich, Ct. August, 1892.