

3. DAVID,<sup>6</sup> born in Canterbury, March 22, 1756; married Abigail Carver in Canterbury, May 1, 1777; was a carpenter, was a soldier in the Revolutionary army, 1780-1782, moved to Pawlet, Vt., about 1782, and thence, in 1793, to Westford, Otsego County, N. Y., where he was living in 1820. His children were a son, Dyer,<sup>7</sup> and two daughters whose names are not ascertained.

4. MARGARET,<sup>6</sup> born in Canterbury, December 20, 1758; died March 14, 1759.

5. MARGARET<sup>6</sup> again, born in Canterbury, January 16, 1760; died young and unmarried.

6. JOHN,<sup>6</sup> born in Canterbury, December 15, 1762; was a soldier in the Revolutionary army, 1780-1782, and was on duty as guard, at the scaffold, at the execution of André, October 2, 1780; was a carpenter. He moved from Canterbury to Pawlet, Vt., about 1782, and in 1811 removed to Vergennes, Vt., thence to St. Albans, Vt., and thence to Barton, Vt., where he died in 1857, aged 94.

He had but one child, a son, Frederick Whiting,<sup>7</sup> who was a distinguished surgeon, lived at Montpelier, Vt., and died there, December 17, 1859, aged 71.

7. JOANNA,<sup>6</sup> born in Canterbury, August 4, 1764; moved to Pawlet about 1780, and married Daniel Roth.

8. Asahel,<sup>6</sup> born June 20, 1766. (See No. VI.)