

Pemberton and his assigns during his natural life to have the use, occupation and possession, etc., and to enjoy the rents for his own use and benefit, and after his decease upon further trust that they shall permit and suffer Elizabeth, wife of the said Robert Pemberton, in case she should survive him, to have the use [etc., as above]. And immediately after the decease of both, in further trust to dispose of the whole to all and every the children of the said Robert Pemberton and Elizabeth his wife as shall be living at the decease of both, share and share alike, and to their respective Executors, Administrators, and Assigns for ever.

Sworn before Hon<sup>ble</sup> George Green, one of the Ass<sup>t</sup> Justices of H.M.'s Court of King's Bench and Common Pleas, by Thomas Peterson of Nevis, who was witness of signature and sealing, 11 September 1798.

FROM NEVIS WILLS, 1787—1805, p. 396.

Will of Elizabeth Butler of Nevis, widow, dated 27 December 1801.

Gives use of four slaves to her sister Frances Maynard until her [Frances'] son John Maynard shall arrive at the age of 21, and then to him, his Executors, etc.

Services of three slaves to her brother Samuel Pemberton during the nonage of the said John Maynard, then to him as above.

To four nieces, Frances, Elizabeth, Ann, and Sally Maynard, a legacy of £100 each.

To nephew Walter Maynard Pemberton, a cow and calf.

To brother Samuel Pemberton, all household furniture.

To sister "Fanny" Maynard, clothes, table-linen, etc.

Also to said sister "Frances" Maynard, some unopened baskets.

If the said John Maynard die before he attains the age of 21 years, all slaves to go to the said sister Frances.

The said Samuel Pemberton appointed Executor.

Codicil of same date makes the said John Maynard, Residuary Legatee.

Proved at Nevis, 24 April 1802.

FROM SAME, p. 405.

Will of Robert Pemberton of St. George's Parish, Nevis, dated 9 March 1802.

Desires to be buried in St. George's, at discretion of Executors.

To nephew John Pemberton Ross, all property not otherwise bequeathed.

Legacies—

To sister "Kitty" [? Christian], two negroes for her natural life, and after her decease the same to go to the said John Pemberton Ross and his heirs for ever.

To brother Roger Bridgwater Pemberton, £200 per annum for life.

To nieces Bridget Ross, junior, and Ann Ross, some negroes.

To friends Samuel Pemberton, William Pemberton, and Basil Spence, Esq., £100 each.

To Mary Ann Chapman, £100.

The said Samuel Pemberton, William Pemberton, and Basil Spence, Esq., appointed Executors.

Proved before his Honor John Browne, President of the Council of Nevis, 4 September 1802.

FROM SAME, p. 427.

Will of Christian Pemberton of Nevis, widow, dated 14 December 1802.

Being bound on a voyage to St. Vincent.

To Samuel Pemberton, £150, to be paid out of the legacy she was entitled to from her aunt Elizabeth, dec<sup>d</sup>. [See ante, p. 13.]