

RECORD OF THOSE WHO WERE LOST AT SEA OR DIED IN FOREIGN PORTS.

CAPT. WILLIAM H. SQUIRES.—Lost in wreck of schooner “Lous V. Place”; was frozen in the rigging with seven of his officers and crew, off Lone Hill, Long Island, Feb. 8, 1895. Body recovered and interred at Southold, L. I.

CAPT. SETH L. SQUIRES.—Washed overboard ; his vessel wrecked off Galveston.

HORACE SQUIRES.—Fell from masthead and killed while on whaling voyage.

CAPT. CHARLES SQUIRES.—Died of fever at Key West ; body brought home and interred at Good Ground, L. I.

ALANSON SQUIRES.—Died at sea while on whaling voyage.

CHAUNCEY W. SQUIRES.—Died of fever in hospital, Boston ; body brought home and interred at Good Ground, L. I.

CAPT. WILLIAM N. RAYNOR.—Schooner “Maria” foundered at sea ; all on board lost.

William SYLVESTER N. TERRY.—Died of fever at house of American Consul on the Island of St. Paul.

THEODORE CONKLIN.—Lost at sea ; fate unknown.