

Hugh Middleton, goldsmith.

Sir Henry Montagu, Chief Justice of the King's Bench.

Sir Robert Killegrewe

Sir William Burlacie the elder.

Sir Thomas Middleton, Alderman.

Sir Lawrence Hyde.

Sir William Burlacie, the younger.

Sir Henry Nevill.

Nicholas Hide, of the Middle Temple.

John Parker, esq.

Samuel Backhouse, esq.

John Backhouse, esq., his son and heir.

Robert Bateman, of London, skinner.

Henry Middleton, son and heir of David Middleton, gent., deceased, late of London.

Humfrey Hall, of London girdler.

Peter Vanlore, Merchant stranger.

Rowland Backhouse, of London, mercer.

Timothy Middleton, of London, esq.

Hugh Middleton, son and heir of Hugh Middleton, of London, goldsmith.

William Middleton, of London, draper.

Richard Middleton, of London, grocer.

William Middleton, of London, goldsmith.

Marmarduke Rawdon, of London, cloth-worker.

Henry Vincent, of London, leather-seller.

William Bateman, of London, grocer.

John Farrer, of London, skinner.

Edward Pritchard, of London, skinner.

James Bearblocke, of London, gent.

Gabriel Newman, of London, goldsmith.

Officers.

Hugh Middleton, governor.

Robert Bateman, deputy-governor.

Rowland Backhouse, treasurer.

to continue in office until Tuesday next after the feast of All Saints, in 1620.

William Lewyn, gent. clerk.

to enjoy the office by himself or deputy for life.