Middlesex, Mass. Probate, vol. 12, part 1, pp. 215-218.

On page 140, of vol. 24, of the Land Records of Middlesex County, Mass., is a deed, dated June 17, 1724, from Sarah Jackson, of New Town, widow of Sebas, deceased, to her son-in-law, Jonathan Draper, of Roxbury, conveying all her right in the estate of her deceased husband, in consideration of said Jonathan giving her support for life at his house.

On the Roxbury records of births, marriages, and deaths,¹ it is recorded, "The widow Sarah Jacson died April 20th 1725," and a monument in the West Roxbury burial-ground bears the inscription, "Here lyes ye body of Mrs Sarah Jackson, wid. to Mr Sebas. Jackson aged 75 years. Dec^d April. ye 20, 1725."²

¹ These records are now in the office of the Registrar of Births, Marriages, and Deaths in Boston.

² N. E. Hist. and Genl. Register, vol. 7, p. 331. Jackson's "Newton," p. 337, makes another error in giving her date of death as March 25, 1726.
