

to this farm which is known as the "Home" farm of said decedent. $43.50 per acre, appraised at $12,832 50

2. Deed.—Joseph R. Whitaker from Daniel M. Wilson and Wife. Date of Deed December 2, 1889. Recorded in E. 7, 122. Farm known as "Cowgill," on said road leading from Dover to Smyrna, adjoining the farm above mentioned and containing according to this Deed, about 254 acres, but containing now, according to the new line above mentioned, about 204 acres, there having been by said new line about 50 acres taken from this farm and added to the farm known as the "Home" farm, as above stated. $15 per acre, appraised at 7,140 00
3. Deed.—Joseph R. Whitaker from William T. Cullen and Wife. Date of Deed September 22, 1893. Recorded in N. 7, 493. Farm situated in St. Jones' Neck, on the road from Dover to Kytt's Hammock, adjoining lands of Timothy Slaughter, A. C. Logan, and others, and containing about 200 acres, at $25 per acre, appraised at 5,000 00
4. Deed.—Joseph R. Whitaker from Amos Cole, Sheriff of Kent County. Deed dated November 24, 1891. Recorded in I. 7, 193. Farm known as "Seward." Farm situated in Little Creek Hundred, adjoining lands of Ward, Emerson, and others, and containing now in the whole about 333 acres, at $40 per acre, appraised at 13,320 00
5. Deed.—Joseph R. Whitaker from Amos Cole, Sheriff of Kent County. Deed dated May 18, 1892. Recorded in K. 7, 258. Farm known as "Blackiston" farm, situated in Kenton Hundred, adjoining lands of John A. Jackson, lands of the heirs of