

Sergt. Samuel Runnels (No. 116) was born probably about 1674 near Fort Royal, Nova Scotia, and is supposed to have been grandson of one of the Scotch immigrants who settled there in 1628, having come over with La Tour, the French protestant. He left Nova Scotia about 1690 and settled in Bradford, Mass., and died in Oct. 1745. His gravestone calls him "Sergt.," but we have no other record of his military service.

Roger Sumner (No. 1408) of Bicester, England, married Nov. 2, 1601 Joane Franklin.

William Sumner (No. 704), only child of Roger, was born in 1615 and married in Bicester, England, Oct. 22, 1625 Mary West. He settled in Dorchester, Mass. in 1636 and died Dec. 9, 1688. His wife died June 7, 1676. He was Rep. to the Gen. Court.

Roger Sumner (No. 352) was born in 1632 in Bicester, Eng., and settled in Dorchester.

Samuel Sumner (No. 176) born Dorchester 1659, was Ensign of Capt. Withington's company in the Canada Expedition of 1690 "and was probably lost." He was perhaps of Taunton, Mass., as his descendants certainly were.

Ebenezer Sumner (No. 22) of Taunton, Mass., served during the Revolutionary war. His name appears with the rank of drummer on the Lexington Alarm Roll of Capt. James Williams Jr.'s company which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775 from Taunton to Roxbury, with a service of twelve days, June 20, 1775 he enlisted with the rank of Fifer, appearing on the muster roll of Capt. King's company in Col. D. Brewer's regiment under date of August 1, 1775, giving his residence as Taunton, and a service of eight months. Finally we find that he enlisted December 8, 1776 for a seventeen day service with the rank of Matross on the roll of Capt. Samuel Fales' company in Col. G. Williams' regiment, Godfrey's brigade, for service in Rhode Island.

Thomas Sweetman (No. 490) was born about 1610 and died Jan. 8, 1682-3. He was a weaver, and is first found in the Cambridge records as residing there in 1645.

Peter Tufts (No. 404) of Charlestown, Mass., came over before 1650. His wife was Mary Pierce, daughter of Elizabeth.

Richard Tuttle (No. 824) of Boston, came in the Planter from London in 1535 with wife Ann and children, one being John aged ten.

John Tuttle (No. 412) was "chosen Lieutenant to the Three County Troope" May 3, 1665, and held the position until May 7, 1673.

Elizabeth Walley (No. 183) is said to have been daughter of Rev. Thomas Walley of West Barnstable, but this is not confirmed.

Roger Wellington (No. 488) of Watertown came to America in 1630 and probably lived in Boston at first. In 1630 he bought fourteen acres of land on the borders of Watertown and Cambridge.

Benjamin Wellington (No. 122) of Lexington "was for many years one of the most popular men of the town, having been elected assessor sixteen years, town clerk fifteen years, treasurer three years, and Rep. to the Gen. Court three years." (1728-30).

George Wheeler (No. 316) was an early settler of Concord, Mass. There is reason to think that his wife, Katherine, was also a Wheeler. His will was proved June 2, 1687, and his son John (No. 158) was born Jan. 19, 1643; married Mar. 25, 1663; and died Sept. 27, 1713.
