

- ren—1. Charles; 2. Frederick, accidentally drowned in the summer of 1894.
- 1616 vi. Phebe, m. James Morgan; she lives at Union Hill. He was formerly a draughtsman in the Grant Locomotive Works, Paterson, but for many years has been in the real estate business in Hudson county. He was a Presidential elector on the Cleveland ticket in 1892. Ch., Sarah.
- 1618 II. Sally, b. Oct. 6, 1819; m. John Beam; they removed to Dubuque, Iowa; both dec. Issue (b. in Paterson): 1. Martha, m. George Ballou, a newspaper editor, of Dav- enport, Iowa; 2. Henry D., a lawyer, in Chicago; 3. Emma, m. ——— Gain.
- 1622 III. Jane, b. May 30, 1825; m. 1st, Joshua Goldsmith, Dec. 30, 1841; she m. 2d, George Wylic, for many years a woolen manufacturer, in the Beaver mill, near the north- west corner of Boudinot and Prospect streets. He d. June 1, 1867; she d. Oct. 28, 1888. Issue:
By her first husband:
- 1623 i. Mary, m. John J. Goetschius. Ch., Jennie Gold- smith, b. Sept. 6, 1871.
- 1625 ii. James Bayard, m. Marietta, dau. of Mark Heath- cole, of Paterson, Oct. 22, 1872. He was second lieutenant in Co. E., First N. J. Artillery, in the late war; d. June 2, 1884, in Jersey City. His wid. lives in Paterson. Ch., Etta.
- 1627 iii. Jane, m. John F. Buckley, Dec. 10, 1868. He was a chosen freeholder, 1871-72-73, and since 1874 has been warden of the Passaic county jail, in which position he has won an enviable reputation for excellent discipline, humane treatment of the prisoners, and scrupulous cleanliness of the institution in his care. Ch., Mary Jane (Mamie), b. Nov. 4, 1870; d. Dec. 26, 1895.
By her second husband:
- 1629 iv. Georgiana, m. Thomas W. Yule. Ch., John.
- 1630 v. Martha Viola, m. Benjamin Franklyn Dowell, March 7, 1883. Children—1. Jennie Beam; 2. John Fletch- er, is dec.
- 1631 IV. John, b. July 21, 1827; m. Sarah Catharine Schoon- maker, Sept. 1, 1852; d. Jan. 6, 1890. He was a painter by trade, and to distinguish him from others of the same name.