439 WILLIAM HENRY,	b. ' ; "went to New Orleans."

Stiles' Supplement gives an entirely different family of children to this David<sup>201</sup>. It has required a long search to prove that this David<sup>201</sup> belonged to the family of David<sup>83</sup> of Harwinton, Conn. I twice visited Bateman E. at Greenbush, and the only hint I could get from him was that his father had a brother Pelatiah, and that he once went there with his father, but could not tell whether he went east or west to get there. Mrs. Oaks (Ann<sup>440</sup> Jemima) of Riverton, Conn., wrote that she was named for her father's sister, Jemima. They all agreed that their father died as early as 1835, at the age of eighty-four; but he could have been but seventy-four if he had been the son of David<sup>83</sup>. On the other hand, Mr David Ellsworth Hayden, son of Pelatiah<sup>204</sup>, wrote me, 1846, that David<sup>201</sup> had a son Bateman at Greenbush, who could give me a record of his family. In answer to my inquiries, Mrs. Lucy<sup>450</sup> Childs of Leslie, Mich., daughter of Pelatiah<sup>204</sup>, wrote me, Sept. 1886, that she remembers the visit of her uncle David<sup>201</sup> and his son Bateman<sup>207</sup>, that her "father received him as a brother, and Bateman remained with us about six months." David<sup>201</sup> received a soldier's pension for services in the Revolutionary war towards the close of his life.
