

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION !

ADVERTISERS READ !!

WE CUT THE FOLLOWING UNSOLICITED EDITORIAL NOTICE FROM THE PITTSBURGH DAILY DISPATCH, OF FEBRUARY 2d, 1872.

The United Presbyterian,

"It is not our business to meddle with the standing or circulation of our home Religious Papers. They all claim to be largely circulated, and whether their claims are or are not correct, it is not our province to decide. But without any reference to any existing controversy on this point, we are prepared to say from evidence, which will not be denied, when the authority is demanded, that the UNITED PRESBYTERIAN has the largest circulation of any weekly paper published in Pittsburgh—religious or secular—and, what is more creditable to its management, its subscriptions are every day on the increase. It is needless to say that we do not agree with the UNITED PRESBYTERIAN in its discussions of religious matters. * * * * * We merely desire to say, as we began, that it has the largest circulation of any weekly paper in Pittsburgh, secular or religious, and that the facts speak well for the business ability of the gentlemen who manage it."
