As the name of the paper indicates, it represents the new order of things now existing in the Southern States; recognizes the stern logic of facts, from which there can be no appeal, and against which the subtlest argument of sophistry can avail nothing.

In the future, as in the past, we shall labor on unselfishly, fearlessly, and hopefully for the rebuilding of the waste places, for the restoration of our former prosperity, and for the education of the masses in everything which tends to develop a true manhood.
