The Millington Enterprise.

F. F. HALLOWELL, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER,

MILLINGTON.....KENDALL COUNTY.....ILLINOIS.

The ENTERPRISE finds its way into nearly every family within a large radius of the publication office. It is strictly a home paper. Its readers, as a class, are among the wealthiest and most active and enterprising farmers of the State of Illinois. As an advertising medium it is very valuable. Millington is rapidly taking position as a manufacturing center—extensive works now running, and others, mostly glass factories, being projected.

Advertising Rates very Low, Considering the Advantages offered.

For terms apply to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., New York, and Rowell & Chesman, St. Louis, agents, or apply to the home office. Sample copies of the paper, with rates, mailed free to any address.

The Diocesan Record.

DRY GROVE.....HINDS COUNTY.....MISSISSIPPI.

Terms of Subscription, $1 per Annum, in Advance.

PUBLISHED ON THE FIRST OF EVERY MONTH, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE RT. REV. BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE.

TO ADVERTISERS.—We desire to call attention of business men to the advantages offered in the RECORD. We have subscribers in every large town in the State, and some copies are mailed to every State and Territory. We publish no advertisement of improper articles, or which are offered under fictitious names. OUR ADVERTISERS.—We invite attention of our readers to our advertisements. We insert none which are calculated to deceive the public. During the past year we have refused more than we have inserted. We have had tempting offers to fill columns, but we will not bring to the notice of our readers, things of which we disapprove or which are offered by irresponsible names. Advertisements not inconsistent with the character of a Religious Paper will be inserted at reasonable rates. Communications, and all letters pertaining to the paper, may be addressed to the RECORD, or to
