

The Smith County Pioneer.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING AT

SMITH CENTRE.....KANSAS.
WILL. D. JENKINS, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

The PIONEER is published in the great homestead region of North-west Kansas and South-west Nebraska. Is the oldest, and has the largest circulation of any paper within a radius of one hundred miles. Is republican in politics, but devotes itself especially to the development of the Great West. A guide to the immigrant and a friend to the Pioneer Homesteaders of Kansas. Its publisher is a genuine Kansas Jayhawker, hence fraudulent, dead-beat advertisers will do well to "steer clear of him." The patronage of honest firms and legitimate advertisers respectfully solicited at the rate of $100 per column; $1 per square, first insertion; 50 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Subscription, $1 50 per Year, Postage Paid.

Its established reputation.—Published continuously since 1851. Its leading position.—Second to no religious weekly on the Coast in size, editorial ability, and general excellence. Its varied departments.—Sunday school, temperance, educational, youth's, family circle, agricultural, commercial, etc., etc. These being distributed over its eight pages, bring advertisements on all pages under the eyes of readers. Its circulation.—Largest of its class on the Pacific Coast. Goes to nearly every town in California, Oregon, Nevada, the Territories, and somewhat in the East. Its official character.—Organ of the M. E. Church in California, Nevada, Idaho, Montana, and Utah. Its family character.—As such it is read, re-read, and preserved—not glanced over hastily and thrown away. Its Christian character.—This carries implied endorsement giving to advertisements special value. No better medium of advertising, especially of matters pertaining to families, churches, Sunday schools and the best class of patrons.
