The News, in politics, will be soundly democratic, and will fearlessly hold up the wholesome principles of democracy under all circumstances. We shall endeavor to make it a welcome messenger to every family who will favor us with their patronage. We are a fixture here, and solicit a liberal patronage at the hands of the people to enable us to make this a first-class journal. The News will always be a firm advocate of farmers' rights, and will lend a helping hand to all who are trying to make an honest living; while, on the other hand, it will be opposed to all rings, cliques and monopolies, which are the offspring of selfishness and corruption. The News is a 24-column sheet, and contains more reading matter than any other paper in North-western Texas.
