

Iron and Metal Review.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT

No. 329 WALNUT STREET.....PHILADELPHIA.

JAMES V. UMBERGER, PROPRIETOR.

A REPRESENTATIVE JOURNAL OF THE IRON, COAL, ORE AND METAL TRADES
OF THE UNITED STATES.

The IRON AND METAL REVIEW is a class journal, specially devoted to the Metal and Coal industries of the country, and contains Price Lists, Trade Reports, Correspondence, and other valuable information from all sections of the United States. Located at Philadelphia, the great shipping point and center of the Anthracite Coal interest, and the metropolitan city of the leading Iron, Steel, Machinery, Ore, and Metal producing State of the Union, its publishers have unsurpassed facilities for obtaining the earliest and most reliable information pertaining to its special field of Journalism.

In addition to its full and accurate Price Lists of Metals, Coals, and Ores at all the leading home centers, it will give a comprehensive review of the Foreign Metal Markets.

It contains fine illustrations of new Machinery, and novelties in Iron and other metals, able Editorials, and choice Selections from the Engineering, Mining, and Scientific Publications of this country and Europe.

Arrangements have been made to secure extensive and exhaustive reports of the Machinery, Coal, Ores, etc., at the Centennial Exposition, and all who subscribe to the IRON AND METAL REVIEW for 1876 will not regret the investment.

Manufacturers of Iron, Steel, Machinery, Hardware, etc., Miners and Shippers of Coal and Ore, and all persons desiring to reach the branches of trade to which this journal caters, should be represented in its Advertising Columns.

CO RESPONDENCE SOLICITED ON ALL SUBJECTS OF INTEREST TO THE TRADE.
