Subscription, per Annum, in Advance, $2; To Clergymen, $1 75.

OUR CHURCH WORK entered upon its sixth volume December 4, 1875, much enlarged, and with a large corps of contributors. The serials are not novels published simply to make the paper sell, but attractive stories, containing useful information as well as moral and churchly instruction. We shall give the most interesting and most instructive children's department to be found in any of our Church journals, that being made a special feature of the paper—and we will for two dollars, including postage, supply to the families of the Church as much attractive reading matter as they can find in any weekly in the country.
