The Oregon Cultivator.

Published at Albany, Oregon. Devoted to the Grange, the Family, the Farm, and General News. Subscription, $2 50 (coin), in advance.

The CULTIVATOR will be a medium of official communication for the State Grange of Oregon and Washington Territory, and is the only paper on the North-western Pacific Coast devoted especially to the work of building up the Order of Patrons of Husbandry. It is edited by JUDGE N. W. GARRETSON, well known to the members of the Order in the Western States. It is the advocate of reform in Government, business, and all the departments of life, and the principal scope of its circulation is the Pacific Coast, and the West and North-western States and Territories. No advertisements of a doubtful or fraudulent character admitted to its columns. Address all business letters to BROWN & STEWART, Business Managers.
