The Independent.

Conceded the Leading Paper of Southern Kansas.

F. B. MCGILL, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER, OSWEGO, LABETTE CO., KANSAS.

SUBSCRIPTION: $2 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.

The INDEPENDENT, enlarged and improved, enters its fifth year with unprecedented success. The largest circulation in Southern Kansas. Farmers contribute to it. Mechanics and laborers write for it. Scientists, physicians, lawyers, geologists, and theologians contribute to its columns. Every live business man takes an interest in it. It is emphatically the people's paper, and stands upon the broad foundation of equal rights before the law; equal standing of man before man; recognizes the fact that the intelligent, industrious laborer, whatever may be his calling or profession, is the noblest work of God. The INDEPENDENT is all its name indicates. It is independent of all individual interests, factions, rings, cliques, and ambitious, unprincipled politicians. It aims to advocate the right at all times and under all circumstances without fear or favor. Its aim is to advocate just principles, whether popular or unpopular, and labor to educate the masses to all means of reform required. While it adheres strictly to the principles as enunciated in the republican platform, it does not permit itself to be so blinded by party prejudices that it cannot see the clergies that have attached themselves to our party by the drift of popular current; but cuts loose from the dead weights, and knowingly permits no rascal to hide himself behind the party cloak. The INDEPENDENT is in the interest of the people; from the honest masses it derives its support. The farmer, the mechanic, the banker, the merchant, the laborer, all classes and professions are patrons of the INDEPENDENT, and take pride in its popularity and prosperity. For rates of advertising address the Publisher, or apply to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., New York, the only authorized agency of the INDEPENDENT.
