The Rocky Mountain Presbyterian.

DENVER, COLORADO.

It reaches a large number of the earnest Sabbath-School workers of the Territories. It reaches a larger number of those interested in building up the Common School System of the Territories than any other paper. It reaches a large number of intelligent readers in the mining and other frontier settlements and at the United States military posts. The constant and widely-extended trips (25,000 miles annually) of the Editor, as Superintendent of Missions, into all portions of the Territories, give him unequalled facilities for reaching and influencing the masses, extending the circulation of the paper and benefiting advertisers.
