This magazine, by its highly artistic illustrations and select literature, has secured a very extensive circulation in all countries where the Spanish language is spoken.

It furnishes to families, literary men and general readers the benefits and pleasure of a literary, instructive, pictorial magazine; while by avoiding any interference whatever with politics or religion, its influence and field of circulation are not impaired by restrictions or prohibitions from the Spanish Government of Cuba or from any of the Spanish-American Republics.

As an advertising medium it offers, for this reason, especial advantages to manufacturers and merchants who desire to introduce their products into those markets. Besides a large number of resident agents, the Publishers have three persons constantly travelling in Spanish-America in the interest of the magazine, and through their instrumentality will send and distribute circulars, catalogues or any other matter which advertisers may desire.

This magazine now circulates in Mexico, Central America, Cuba, Porto Rico and other West Indies, United States of Colombia, Venezuela, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Chili, and Buenos Ayres; thus reaching a total of over thirty-five millions of inhabitants, all of whom are consumers of the products of the United States.
