It advocates a reform in the monetary laws. It advocates a reduction of the rates of interest. It advocates a repeal of the specie resumption act and present national banking system. It advocates a change in paper currency. It protests against the payment of the five-twenty bonds in gold, and the increase of the gold-bearing securities of the government. It advocates the equalization of taxation among all classes. It advocates the eight-hour system of labor. It advocates the prevention of Chinese importation, and the protection of the labor interests by legislative enactment. It advocates the holding of the public lands for the benefit of the people, and the granting of it free of cost, in amounts not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, to the landless settlers, and protests against disposing of it to corporations or individuals.

As an Advertising Medium among the Industrial Classes it has no Superior.
