

The Evening Mail.

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

OFFICE, 34 PARK ROW, CORNER BEEKMAN STREET, NEW YORK.

Daily, Six Dollars a Year; Three Dollars for Six Months; Fifty Cents a Month; Two Cents a Copy (Including Postage).

THE "EVENING MAIL" HAS LONG SINCE TAKEN ITS PLACE IN THE FOREMOST RANK OF THE NEW YORK CITY DAILIES, AND ITS ADVERTISING SPACE IS EAGERLY SOUGHT AFTER AND LIBERALLY PATRONIZED BY THE BEST BUSINESS HOUSES IN THE CITY.

It is a thoroughly independent organ of the honest men of both political parties who hate official corruption; who desire the adoption of some scheme of Civil Service Reform; who want the national taxes so adjusted and reduced as to impose the fewest possible burdens on industry and commerce; who are opposed to railroad and other monopolies; who are opposed to unnecessary legislation by the Federal Government; who are in favor of temperance reform; who are interested in education, charitable and religious movements, and generally to those who believe that the increasing evils of our time demand fearless, non-partisan newspapers which will sustain the cause of Truth, Honesty and practical Christianity on all occasions and under all circumstances.

The Weekly Mail.

One Dollar and Fifty Cents a Year; Seventy-Five Cents for Six Months; Forty Cents for Three Months (Including Postage).

The WEEKLY MAIL contains the most careful selections from the editorials and other matter published in the EVENING MAIL's daily editions, and in addition much equally interesting and valuable material, literary and other, omitted from the Daily for lack of space.

There will be Found an Insurance Department, a Literary Department, an Art Department, a Dramatic Department, a Musical Department, a Fashion Department, a Summary of all Important News, a Record of all Noteworthy Current Events, Correspondence from all Parts of the World, &c., &c., &c.

The Insurance Department of the WEEKLY MAIL has been universally recognized by State insurance officials, the Insurance Press, and leading Life and Fire Managers, as, beyond comparison, the most successful attempt yet made to invest the subject of Insurance with that degree of interest and vivacity which will compel the attention of casual readers. The people study it; the Insurance papers quote it; agents welcome it; and underwriters everywhere endorse it. The WEEKLY MAIL is peculiarly adapted for circulation among Insurance Agents, and has been so recognized by those companies whose agents have been supplied with it.

At the reduced rate of subscription—$1 50 a year, SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for six months FORTY CENTS for three months (postage prepaid), FIVE CENTS per single copy—the WEEKLY MAIL is, beyond question, the Cheapest, as well as the Best, Weekly Newspaper in the Country. Supplied by all newsdealers through the American News Company. Sample copies of the DAILY and WEEKLY MAIL sent free. Address
