The CHRONICLE, being issued weekly, gives to its readers the current news of the insurance business while it is news. In the columns of the CHRONICLE, from time to time, will be found varied and practical information, valuable to the local agent as to the general agent, to the local company as to the agency company, and instructive to the general public as well.

In the CHRONICLE candid, fair and independent criticisms and discussion of companies and men as they are, and of subjects as they arise, will be made when occasion occurs for such.

The CHRONICLE, each alternate week, contains a full page cartoon, picturing men and events of particular and general interest to the insurance profession.

In the CHRONICLE the reader will continue to find statistical and tabular information relating to the various branches of insurance business—fire, life, marine, accident, &c.

The CHRONICLE has been, is, and is to be, a live, independent, and critical newspaper, proving all things by the test of truth and reason, and holding so fast to what is good that it never loses its grip; giving to its readers each week the news of the week, with appropriate comments thereon.
