

HISTORIC AMERICAN LANDSCAPES SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

FLANDERS FIELD AMERICAN CEMETERY & MEMORIAL,
SUPERINTENDENT'S QUARTERS
Wortegemseweg 117
Waregem
West Flanders
Belgium

HALS BE-1-A

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Brian Grogan, photographer, June 2013

- | | |
|----------|--|
| BE-1-A-1 | South elevation of Superintendent's Quarters, built as a combination staff living quarters/office and a visitor reception room by the War Department in 1923-24. Note exterior door to Gold Star Mothers' reception room on right. |
| BE-1-A-2 | Perspective view of Superintendent's Quarters from southeast. Note main entrance gate in left background. |
| BE-1-A-3 | Perspective view of rear facade of Superintendent's Quarters from north. Note original attached pumphouse (now garage) at center and attached workshop ell at right (added c. 1937). |
| BE-1-A-4 | Perspective view of rear facade of Superintendent's Quarters from north/northwest. |
| BE-1-A-5 | Interior view of Gold Star Mothers' reception room from northwest. Note c. 1935 furniture and fireplace with early electric grate. |
| BE-1-A-6 | Interior view of Gold Star Mothers' reception room from southeast. Note door to current office area on left. |