Significance: The U.S. Naval Base at Pearl Harbor was designated as a National Historic Landmark in 1964. As a Category 3 facility, it has been determined that Building No. 469 functioned as part of the Pearl Harbor Naval Base, but is only of minor importance to the historic character of the National Historic Landmark.

Description: Building No. 469 is a single story wood structure on a concrete slab located at Jarvis Street and Kuahua Avenue. The area of the building is approximately 2,500 square feet.

History: Building No. 469 was constructed in 1942. The building is currently used as an electronics shop. Plans for demolition of the existing building are included in Military Construction (MCON) Project P-115, which proposes to demolish the existing building and construct a new Intermediate Maintenance Activity (IMA) Facility.
