

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

NORRIDGEWOCK BRIDGE

Spanning Kennebec River on State Route 201A/State Route 8

Norridgewock

Somerset County

Maine

HAER ME-70

Note: spans are referred to from first (southernmost) to fourth (northernmost).

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Leifer, photographer, June 2006

|          |                                                                                                                      |
|----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ME-70-1  | West elevation, looking east.                                                                                        |
| ME-70-2  | East elevation, looking west.                                                                                        |
| ME-70-3  | South elevation, looking north.                                                                                      |
| ME-70-4  | North elevation, looking southeast, with intersection of Madison Road, Sophie Mae Lane and River Road in foreground. |
| ME-70-5  | West elevation at off axis, looking southeast.                                                                       |
| ME-70-6  | West elevation at off axis, looking south.                                                                           |
| ME-70-7  | Detail of north abutment and fourth span, looking southeast.                                                         |
| ME-70-8  | Detail of piers (under third and fourth spans), looking southwest.                                                   |
| ME-70-9  | South elevation, looking north, Bridge Street in foreground.                                                         |
| ME-70-10 | Detail of east arch (second span), looking northwest.                                                                |
| ME-70-11 | Detail of arch ties (first span), looking northwest.                                                                 |
| ME-70-12 | Detail of west balustrade and panel, looking northwest.                                                              |

