

STATE	COUNTY	TOWN OR VICINITY
✓ TENNESSEE	CARTER WASHINGTON	(Approx. 2 mi. East of JOHNSON CITY on US Hy #19
INDEX NUMBER TENN, 90-JONCLV, 2-	MONUMENT LANDON C)	TIPTON - HAYNES HOUSE E WASHINGTON Co. 2 3p 3d
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. TENN-93	History: Built about 1785 by Col. John Tipton and was scene of battle between followers of Gov. Jno. Sevier and Col. Tipton over control and policies of State of Frank lin, later home of Landon Haynes. Present Owner: S.W. Simerly, Rt. #2- Johnson City (Occupant) Description: 2 story log house, stone chimneys either end. Later additions included "L" to rear, 1 story HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY ✓ ✓
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	✓
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
epo 6-8369

portico on front and 1 room law office to left duplicating portico on main house and the additions included covering logs with clapboard siding. Typical farm house of the late 1700's.
Reference: Hist. of Homes and Gardens of Tenn. <sup>p. 115</sup>
Parthenon Press, Nashville, Tenn., State Archive

W. Jeter Eason
Aug. 8, 1936