Richmond, Virginia

Builder: William Pratt

Present Condition: Good

Additional Data:

William Abbott Pratt was born at Sutton, England, March 7, 1818, and died at "Walnut Grove" near Waynesboro, Virginia, January 18, 1879. His parents immigrated direct to this country from England in the year 1832 and settled in Washington city.

The son commenced at once the study of architecture and civil engineering. On June 17, 1838, he married Eveleen Ginevan. ("Richmond News Leader," November 11, 1931.)

The beautiful Gothic stained glass windows are not the original windows, but were put in by Mr. McCornick about fifty years ago under the personal supervision of Mr. Tiffany. ("Richmond News Leader," November 30, 1932.)
