

HABS
WASH
18-BREM
2C

Historic American Buildings Survey
INDEX
TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HABS No. WA-203-C

Puget Sound Naval Shipyard, Munitions Storage Bunker, (Building 104)
Naval Ammunition Depot
South of Campbell Trail near Jackson Park Family Housing Area
Bremerton
Kitsap County
Washington

July 1994

John Stamets, Photographer

| HABS No. | Description |
|-----------------|--|
| WA-203-C-1 | Perspective view showing most of Bunker 104 with south steps in foreground. Remainder of facade (east side) is shown in photo WA-203-C-2. Camera pointed NW. |
| WA-203-C-2 | Elevation view of north end of Bunker 104 showing steps and slope of earthen roof. Camera pointed W. |
| WA-203-C-3 | Elevation view of entire midsection using ultrawide angle lens. Note opened south doors and closed north doors. The following photo WA-203-C-4 is similar except the camera position was moved right to include the slope of the south end. |
| WA-203-C-4 | Elevation view of Bunker 104 with ultrawide angle lens shows about 70 percent of east facade including entire south end with steps and doors. View shows slope of south end and vegetation growing atop building. See also photo WA-203-C-3. |
| WA-203-C-5 | Detail showing north set of doors of Bunker 104. Padlock is hidden behind cylindrical casing. |
| WA-203-C-6 | Detail showing vent atop earthen roof of Bunker 104. |
| WA-203-C-7 | Interior view of Bunker 104 shows SE corner. |
| WA-203-C-8 | Interior view at mid-section shows columns and walls. Wire mesh divides storage space. |

Note: For a 1947 plan view showing the location of Bunker 104 in the Naval Ammunition Depot area, see photo HABS No. WA-203-B-5, which is contained in the HABS report on Bunker 103 (HABS No. WA-203-B).