

FRENCH AVIATION CAMP NEAR SALONIKI, WHERE EACH TENT IS SURROUNDED BY FANCY FLOWER BEDS, IN THE CENTRES OF WHICH ARE PATRIOTIC INSCRIPTIONS, THE ONE IN THE FOREGROUND READING: "GLORY TO OUR ETERNAL FRANCE."
From a French Official Photograph.
(From Paul Thompson.)

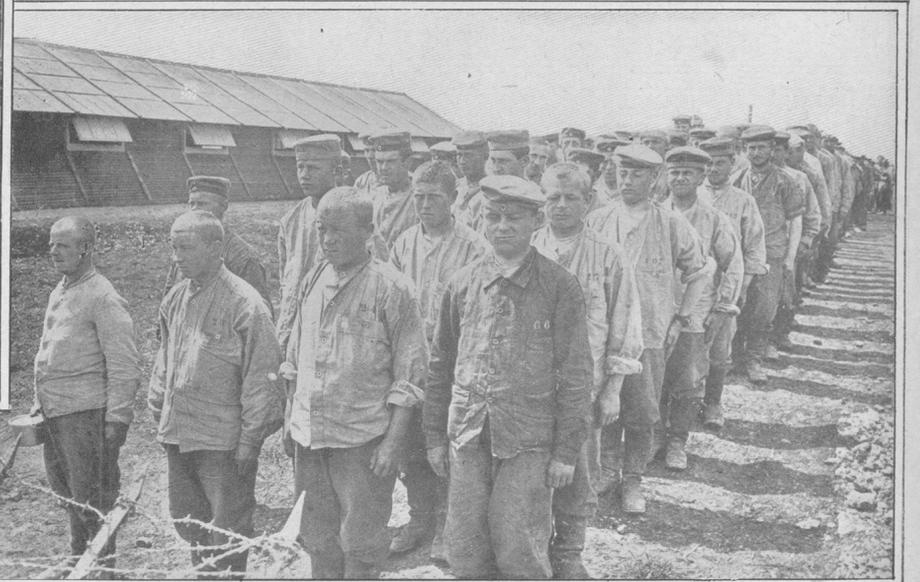

(Photo from Central News Photo Serv.)

THE TRONES WOODS ON THE SOMME, Captured by the British, Showing a Deserted German Observation Post in a Tall Tree, Still Standing, but Many Times Nicked by Bullets.

QUEEN MARIE OF RUMANIA, A British Princess, in the Rumanian Peasant Dress.

YOUTHFUL GERMAN PRISONERS OF THE CLASS OF 1916, CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH ON THE SOMME,
(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

THIS FRENCH WOMAN, WITH MANY OTHERS, HAS TAKEN THE PLACE OF HER HUSBAND IN THE HARVEST FIELD, WIELDING THE OLD FASHIONED "CRADLE": A PICTURE SUGGESTING MILLET.
(Photo from Press Illustrating Service, Inc.)

(Photo by Chesterfield & McLaren.)

SIR ROBERT BORDEN, Premier of Canada, Calling for Three Cheers for the Duke of Connaught, the Governor General, at the Laying of the Cornerstone of the New Canadian Parliament Buildings at Ottawa, to Take Place of Those Destroyed by Fire Last February. In the Group in the Background Are the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia.