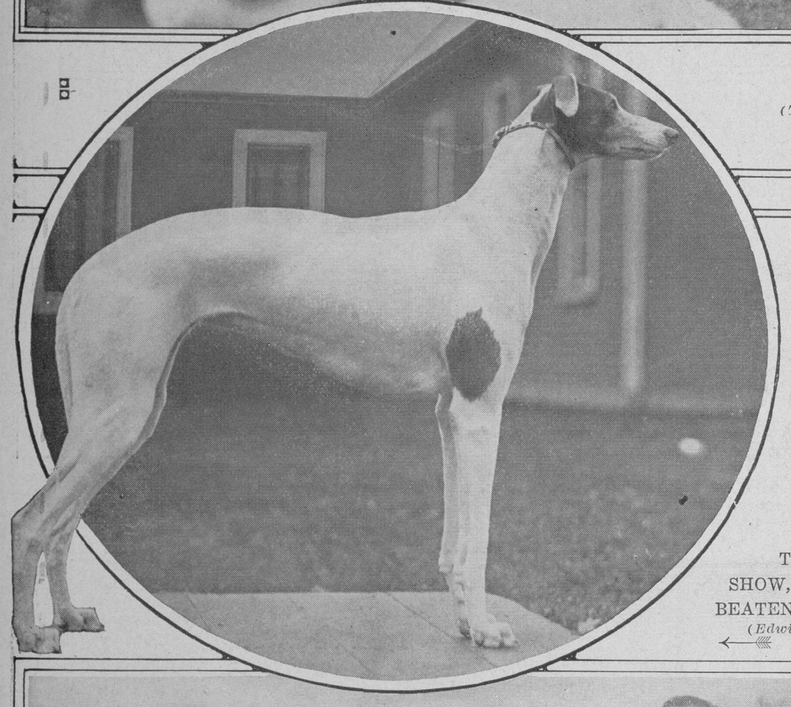
SCENE IN THE JUDGING RING AT THE FIFTEENTH ANNUAL DOG SHOW OF THE LADIES' KENNEL ASSOCIATION, MINEOLA, L. I.
Conejo Wycollar Boy, Mrs. Roy A. Rainey's Wire-Haired Champion in Many Competitions, and Adjudged the Best Dog in the Show, Can Be Seen on the Right.

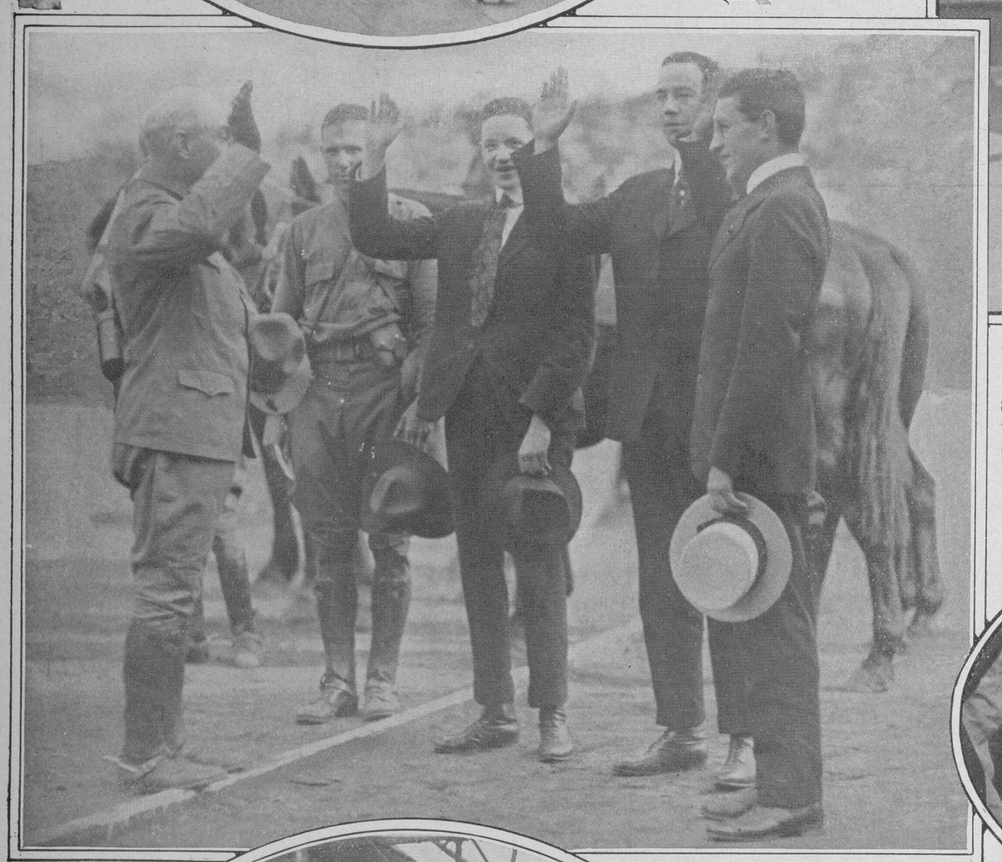


(Times Photo Service.)

CHAMPION LANSDOWNE SUNFLOWER, B. F. LEWIS, Jr., OWNER, BEST GREYHOUND IN THE MINEOLA SHOW, AND NEVER BEATEN.
(Edwin Levick.)

MRS. OLIVER HARRIMAN AND LITTLE NORMAN LEWIS MARTINSON,
Son of Chief Quartermaster Martinson, U. S. N., on the "U. S. S. Recruit," in Union Square.
(Times Photo Service.)

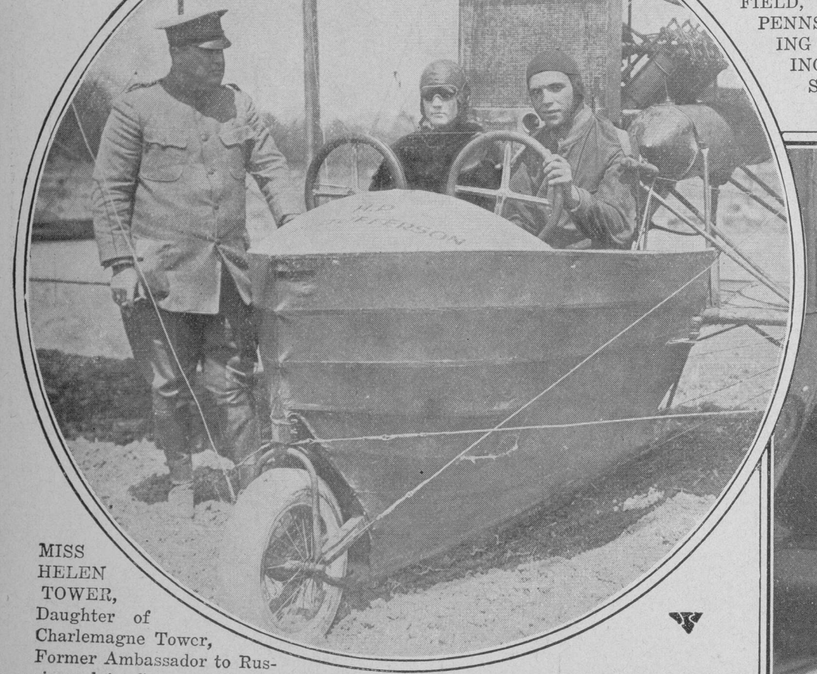
JUNIOR NAVAL AND MARINE SCOUTS ENLISTING A NAVAL RECRUIT ON THE "LAND BATTLESHIP" IN UNION SQUARE, HAVING GONE OUT AMONG THE CROWD AROUND THE RECRUITING "SHIP" AND BROUGHT THE MAN IN.
The Two Smaller Boys in Foreground Are Chinese Lads, Lee Koonyu and George Chu, Who Are Scout Members.
(Times Photo Service.)



YOUNG MEN OF PHILADELPHIA, STIRRED TO ENTHUSIASM BY WAR GAMES ON FRANKLIN FIELD, UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, TAKING THE RECRUITING OATH ON THE SPOT.
(© International Film Service.)

(Press Illustrating Service.)

RED CROSS STUDENTS OF THE GIRLS' NATIONAL HONOR GUARD STERILIZING A THERMOMETER BEFORE TAKING THEIR PATIENT'S TEMPERATURE.
The Girls' Honor Guard, Founded Just a Year Ago with Five Members and $7 in the Treasury, by Miss Theodora Booth, Daughter of Ballington Booth, Now Has 12,000 Members. Miss Booth Can Be Seen on the Extreme Left.



MISS HELEN TOWER,
Daughter of Charlemagne Tower, Former Ambassador to Russia and to Germany, Off for Her Initial Airplane Flight at the State Aviation Training Grounds at San Carlos, California, with Lieut. H. P. Christofferson as Pilot.
(International Film Service.)

BLIND BOY SCOUTS, LIGHTHOUSE TROOP NO. 115, OF THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATION FOR THE BLIND, IN A SCENE FROM THEIR PLAY, "THE MAKING OF LARRY," PRESENTED AT THE "LIGHTHOUSE."