Rotogravure
Picture Section,
In Two Parts: Part 5

The New York Times

Sunday,
October 14, 1917

SQUADRON A, MANHATTAN'S CRACK CAVALRY, AND LAST OF THE STATE'S FEDERALIZED NATIONAL GUARD IN NEW YORK, ON FINAL PARADE DOWN FIFTH AVENUE, BEFORE ENTRAINING IN JERSEY CITY FOR CAMP WADSWORTH, SPARTANBURG, S. C.

(Times Photo Service.)

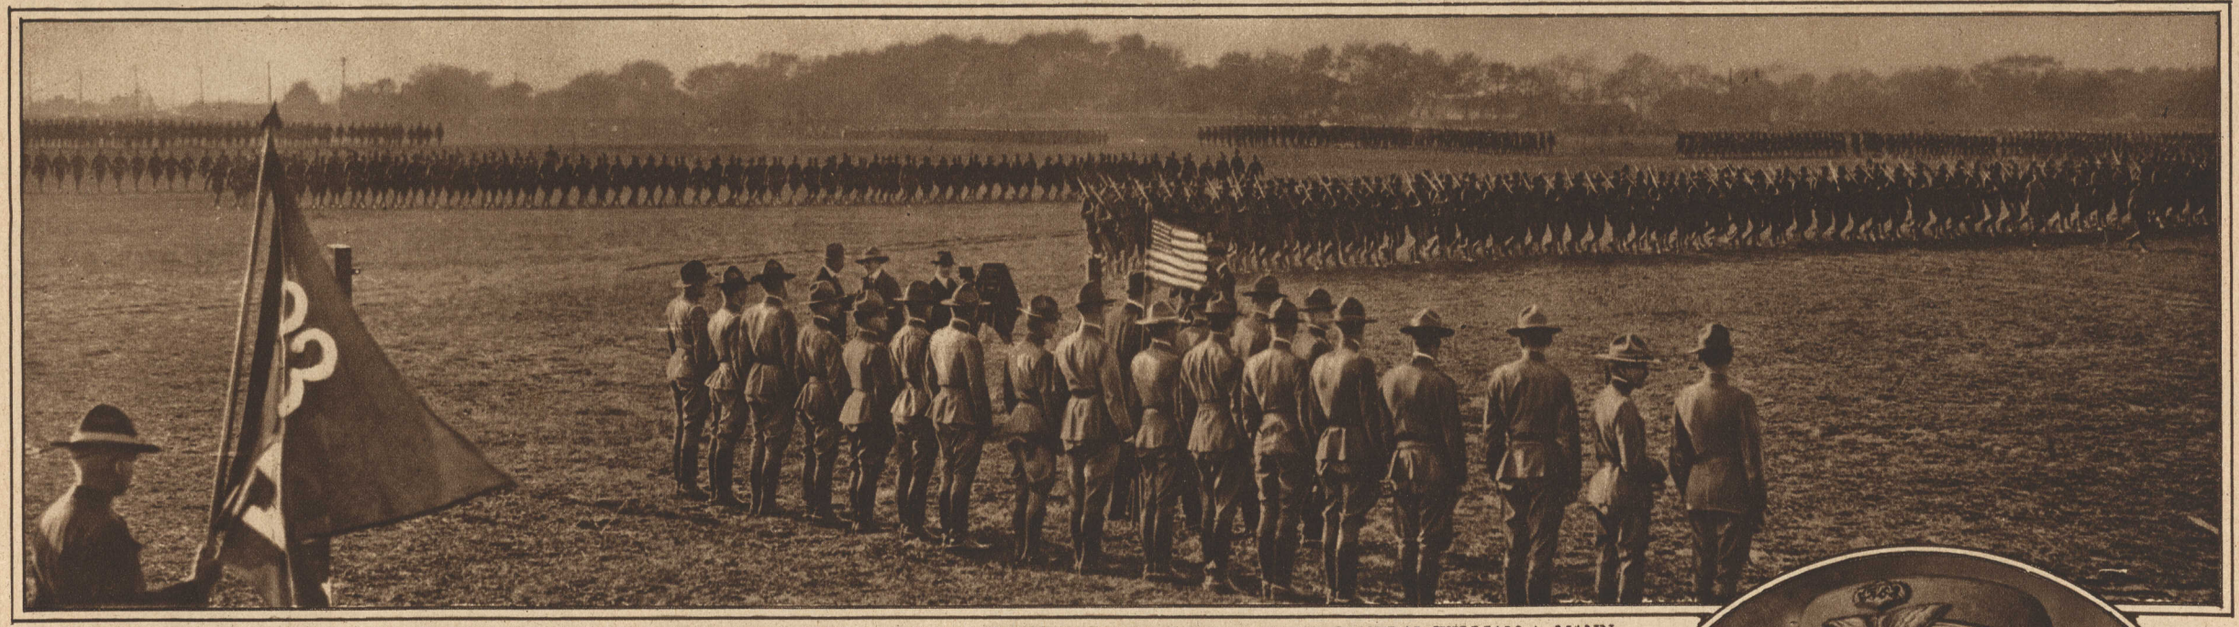
CANADIAN SOLDIER WEARING THE LATEST GERMAN GAS MASK CAPTURED TWO WEEKS AGO AT LENS IN WHICH, OWING TO THE SHORTAGE OF RUBBER, LEATHER AND CLOTH HAVE BEEN USED FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF THE FLEXIBLE PARTS.

(© Western Newspaper Union.)

EX-PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT SEATED BETWEEN HIS SON, SERGEANT MAJOR CHARLES P. TAFT, U. S. A., AND THE LATTER'S BRIDE, FORMERLY MISS ELEANOR KELLOGG CHASE, WHO WERE MARRIED A WEEK AGO AT WATERBURY, CONN. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

(Donald Thompson, from Central News.)

GROUP OF GIRL SOLDIERS OF THE RUSSIAN "BATTALION OF DEATH," ALL OF WHOM HAVE BEEN CITED FOR BRAVERY IN BATTLE AND RECEIVED FROM THE KERENSKY GOVERNMENT DECORATIONS CORRESPONDING TO THE CROSS OF ST. GEORGE OF THE OLD RUSSIAN REGIME.



THE "RAINBOW DIVISION," MADE UP OF TROOPS FROM TWENTY-SIX STATES OF THE UNION, MARCHING IN REVIEW BEFORE MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM A. MANN AND STAFF OVER HEMPSTEAD PLAINS, CAMP MILLS, MINEOLA, LONG ISLAND. (Times Photo Service.)

MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM A. MANN, BRIGADIER GENERALS LENIHAN AND BROWN, THEIR STAFFS, AND UNITED STATES SENATOR OSCAR W. UNDERWOOD, OFFICIAL REVIEWERS OF THE RAINBOW DIVISION ON PARADE ON LAST SUNDAY, SALUTING THE PASSING COLORS. (Times Photo Service.)

(© Press Illustrating Co.)

GENERAL LUIGI CADORNA,
Generalissimo of the Italian Armies Whose Recent Great Successes on the Isonzo Front Have Been Attributed to His High Leadership.
From a New Photograph Just Received in This Country.