THE FRENCH CONSOLIDATING THEIR LINES ON A WOODED HEIGHT, AISNE FRONT, CAPTURED BY THEM AS A RESULT OF THEIR DRIVE OF OCTOBER 23-26.
The Smoke of Bursting German Shrapnel Can Be Seen Rising from the Valley Beyond the Ridge. (Pictorial Press.)

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE, HEADED BY MISS ANNE MORGAN OF NEW YORK, ENGAGED IN RE-CONVERTING THE BATTLEFIELDS OF FRANCE INTO HOMES FOR THE RETURNING REFUGEES, VIEWING FIELDS ON THE AISNE FRONT FRESHLY FALLOWED BY FRENCH SOLDIERS.
Miss Morgan Can Be Seen Standing Near the Centre with M. Fernand David, French Minister of Agriculture. (Pictorial Press.)

SEAMEN J. C. BIEHL AND J. P. YOHMAN OF NEWARK, N. J.,
Who Have Made a Solemn Vow Not to Shave Until They Have Had a Fight with a German Submarine. They Have So Far Crossed the Ocean Several Times Since the Vow Was Taken Without Sight of Undersea Craft of Any Kind.
(© International Film Service.)

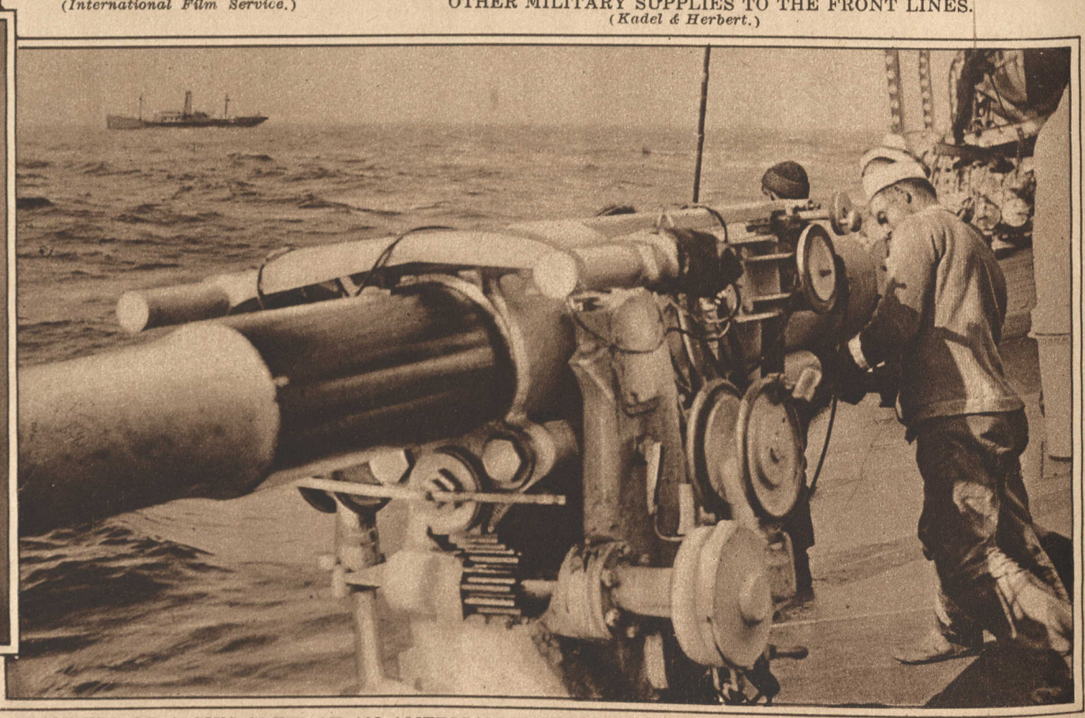
AUSTRALIAN MULE TRANSPORT ON THE BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE "SWAMPED" IN OCEANS OF MUD.
This Scene Is Said to be Typical of Almost the Entire French Front Throughout This Fall, Greatly Impeding Offensive Operations. (Western Newspaper Union.)

RICHARD ALLEN BLOUNT,
Son of R. E. Blount of North Carolina, Who Has Received the French War Cross for Capturing, Single-Handed, thirty Germans at Verdun. Before He Joined the French Foreign Legion, More Than a Year Ago, His Father Told Him He Was Expected to Account for Five Germans.
(International Film Service.)

FRENCH USING GASOLINE ENGINES FOR CONVEYING SHELLS AND OTHER MILITARY SUPPLIES TO THE FRONT LINES.
(Kadel & Herbert.)

A CONCRETE SHIP IN COURSE OF CONSTRUCTION AT BORDEAUX, FRANCE, WHERE THE USE OF THIS MATERIAL IN SHIPBUILDING IS REPORTED TO BE THE SUBJECT OF EXPERIMENTATION ON A LARGE SCALE.
(© International Film Service.)

BRIG. GEN. A. E. SWIFT,
Commander of the Fourteenth Canadian Infantry, Who Has Just Been Decorated by King George V. with the D. S. O. for Gallantry in Action.
(Western Newspaper Union.)



MEMBERS OF A GUN CREW OF AN AMERICAN DESTROYER, ACTING AS CONVOY TO A SHIP THROUGH THE "BARRED" ZONE, READY FOR INSTANT RESPONSE ON THE CRY FROM THE LOOKOUT ON SIGHTING A PERISCOPE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)