

Above—An unusual night picture of the British Grand Fleet illuminated for the victory celebration. From L. to R.—The first four ships are the Furious, Queen Elizabeth, Lion, Tiger. Keystone.

Above—Elizabeth, N. J., went out to help it people make ends meet. Farmers daily bring their produce into town and the public squares and streets have become great open air markets. I. F. S.

Left—The children of Viscount Kikujico Ishii, Japan's Ambassador to the United States, are evidently happy to find the mail has brought them each a letter from daddy in Washington. Wide World Photo.

Premier Clemenceau of France cheerfully turns the other cheek to receive a salutation from a fair Alsatian maid during the great Paris victory celebration. Central News.

Three of the American Army's star athletes to return the other day on the Imperator. Left—Lieut. Norman Ross, all around swimming champion, winner of all swimming events participated in at the inter-Allied games. Above—Lieut. Robert Simpson, greatest of all hurdlers. Right—Lieut. C. W. Paddock, sprinting sensation of games in Pershing Stadium. Kaplan Service.

Left—They don't wait for the sun to shine to make hay at Pine Brook, N. J. The recent heavy rains forced the farmers in that vicinity to go a-haying in rubber boots in order to save their valuable crops. Keystone.

Left—Vincent Astor threw out the clutch of his twin six long enough for the photographer to snap him in this informal pose at Newport recently. Mr. Astor was a U. S. naval lieutenant during the war and returned home on a captured U-boat. Underwood.

Above—"Mary D. S. C.," erstwhile monkey mascot of the French and British armies, adds another page to her history by flying with the pathfinding aeroplaner which have left Mineola on a transcontinental flight. I. F. S.

To the right—Brooks and Patterson, the Australian tennis stars, defeating Johnson and Richards in the finals at Newport, during the invitation tournament of a week ago. I. F. S.

C. of L. situation. Mr. Wilson asked for drastic laws to cut prices and sug- Keystone.